

to make it a customary place of visitation or resort, may at any time, on indictment and conviction, be revoked by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, and the same person shall not again be licensed within two years of the time of such revocation.

L. Any person doing business under a license issued under the provisions of this act, shall not permit any other person who has been refused a license under said provisions, or whose license has been revoked, to have any interest whatever in said business; and if be shown to the Circuit Court for Allegany County by satisfactory proof that any person has any interest in any business carried on under a license issued under the provisions of this act, said court shall, after giving the party holding such license fifteen days' written notice, revoke the same.

M. Any person or persons holding a license issued under the provisions of this act, may assign the unexpired term thereof to another, provided that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions of this act in the same manner as is hereby required of an original applicant for a license under this act, and, upon such transfer, the license so transferred shall have the consent of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany County endorsed on said license, and the assignee shall in every respect be subject to all the requirements, provisions and penalties of this act, and also all the privileges and benefits hereby conferred.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act (so far as the same are so inconsistent), are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage; provided, however, that all licenses in force at the time of the adoption of this act shall continue in force until the first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and provided, further that nothing contained in this act shall apply to cases pending nor to the violations of the law which shall have occurred prior to the adoption of this act, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted as if this act had not been passed and adopted.

Approved April 7th, 1892.
