

Anne Arundel County; and thereafter the number of County Commissioners for said county shall be three; said commissioners shall meet at their office in the court house at Annapolis for the transaction of the duties of their office at least one day in each week, and on such other days as they may deem necessary.

Terms of Commisssioners elected in 1891 112. A. The five county commissioners elected at the general election on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November eighteen hundred and ninety-one shall hold their office for two years from the time of their election or until their successors are elected and qualified and shall receive the compensation now provided by law.

Terms of those to be elected in 1893 112. B. The three county commissioners elected at the general election in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three shall severally hold office for the terms of six, four and two years respectively from the date of their election; and the Governor so soon, as he conveniently may after receiving the official returns of said election, shall determine which of said three commissioners shall hold his office for the term of six years, which for the term of four years and which for the term of two years, and in conformity to said determination issue to them their commissions for their several terms thereafter beginning at the general election on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five and at every general election on the same day in every second year one county commissioner for said county shall be elected for the term of six years from the date of his election, who shall be ineligible to succeed himself or to hold the office of County Commissioner for Anne Arundel County for two years from the expiration of his term of office; provided that no two commissioners shall be from one and the same district at one and the same time. After the number of county commissioners has been reduced to three, in case of a vacancy occurring in any one of said offices by death, resignation or otherwise, the Governor shall appoint a proper person to fill such vacancy until the next general election, and if the term of the commissioner whose term of office shall have become vacant as aforesaid, be not then completed a commissioner shall be elected to serve only until the expiration of the term for which the original incumbent was elected.

Approved April 7th, 1892.