

commissioners from granting permission to railways of Baltimore City or other county railways from extending their lines over the highways of said county, upon proper application to said board of commissioners and upon said board being satisfied that any such extension would benefit the public.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said company is hereby authorized, to enter into agreements with any passenger railway company of the city of Baltimore for the making of track connections at the limits of said city or within Baltimore County with such city railway and to make agreement with such city railway for the carrying of the passengers of each over the other, and if such city railway with which track connections have been made shall be by law authorized to use electricity as a motive power, said company hereby incorporated is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with such city railway for the furnishing of such quantities of electricity or electric motive power as such city company may desire or require for the purpose of operating its railway, and said company hereby incorporated is authorized to lease or consolidate with other railways.

Agreement with other railway
companies.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 7th, 1892.

CHAPTER 478.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments, section two hundred and thirty-six, of article twenty-two, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That section two hundred and thirty-six, of article twenty-two, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hancock," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows :

Repealed
and re-enacted

236. The said burgess and commissioners may levy a tax on the property within the town to such amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary, not to exceed, however, in any one year twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property, and may appoint a collector to collect the same, and prescribe his term of office, responsibility and compensation ; and the said collector shall have

Levy a tax.