Town limits of Cambridge.

SEC. 42. The corporate limits of the town of Cambridge are extended and defined so as to include all the land and territory contained and embraced within the following metes and bounds, courses and distances, to wit : Beginning at the south corner of J. W. Crowell's land at Hambrook's road on Glasgow street extended and thence running in a straight line to the most northerly boundary of the said town on the south side of the Horn's Point road, thence running and binding with the south side of said road to the next boundary on the said road, thence running and binding with another line of the said town to the western boundary of the said town, thence running and binding with the present southern and eastern line or limits of said town to the foot of Cemetery avenue, thence across Cambridge Creek and in a line parallel with Maryland avenue to the county road leading from the avenue last aforesaid to the Jacktown road, thence with the lands of John Hurst and binding therewith to Choptank River, thence running and binding with the said river (and including the wharves at the foot of High street and Mill street) to the point on the shore at which the divisional line between the said Crowell's and S. T. Milbourne's lands, if extended in a straight line to the said river would strike the same, and thence in and with said extended and divisional line to the place of beginning, provided that all municipal taxes levied upon and collected from the property within the area or territory brought within the corporate limits of the town of Cambridge by the provisions of this act, and not heretofore within said corporate limits, shall be exclusively applied to and expended for the improvement of that part of the town so brought within the said corporate limits for a period of three years from the date of this act.

First ward.

SEC. 44. The said town shall be divided into five wards as follows, to wit : First ward, beginning for the first ward at the foot of Gay street, thence binding with Cambridge Creek and Choptank River (including the wharves at the foot of High street and Mill street) to the northwestern line or limit of the said town, thence with the said line to the south corner of said Crowell's land at Hambrook's road, thence with the said road and Glasgow street to High street, thence with High street to Court lane, and thence with Court lane to the beginning.

Second ward, beginning for the second ward at the corner of High street and Glasgow street, thence binding with
