

missioners shall have power to change from time to time the rights, duties and modes of proceeding of said collector in collecting taxes as aforesaid.

Taxes to bear interest. SEC. 76. All taxes as aforesaid shall bear interest after four months from the date when the tax list is placed in the hands of the collector for collection, and every such collector shall collect and pay over any levy placed in his hands within four months after the receipt of said warrant and list, and upon his failure to do so, his bond shall at once be put in suit.

Market house. SEC. 83. The commissioners may establish and provide a market house in the town for the use and convenience of the inhabitants thereof. and may by by-laws and ordinances provide for and regulate the sale of all provisions brought to said town for sale, the trying and adjusting of the scales, weights and measures used at the market by the standards of the county, and the seizure and sale to the highest bidder, of any found false or untrue; the renting of the stalls and shambles of the market, and for the seizure and sale, for the use of the commissioners, of all butter in prints or parcels brought to the said market for sale, found wanting in weight, or unsound and unwholesome. The commissioners shall also have power to license and regulate all carriages, carts, wagons, and other vehicles hired or kept for hire in the said town, and to pass all necessary and proper regulations respecting the same; provided, however, that all revenue arising from said licenses shall be applied to keeping in order the streets of the said town.

Extension of boundaries. SEC. 95. All that part of Crisfield district in Somerset County, lying between the present limits of Crisfield and the metes and bounds hereinafter named, be and the same is hereby annexed to and made a part of the town of Crisfield, to wit: Beginning at the present boundary of the said town set up at Hammock Point, thence by a straight line, touching the southeast corner of Henry F. Jewetts house, to the new county road from the high school to Ashbury Church; thence by a straight line to a point on the east side of the Eastern Shore Railroad and the north side of the new county road, through the lands of James H. Wards, to Mariner's Church, where the said railroad and the county road cross each other; and from the said intersection, by the dividing line between Crisfield and Lawson's districts, running to little Annemessex River, thence by a straight line to the present boundary on Long Point.

SEC. 95 A. And it shall be the duty of the commissioners of Crisfield for five years from and after the pas-