

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the remainder of the proceeds of said sale, if there be any, shall be applied by said trustees to the use and purposes of said church.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7th, 1892.

---

CHAPTER 499.

AN ACT to repeal section eighty-three of article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," as amended by the act of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter three hundred and eleven, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That section eighty-three of article ten, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Cambridge," as amended by the act of eighteen hundred and ninety, chapter three hundred and eleven, be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 83. For the purpose of furnishing and securing an abundant and permanent supply of water, for the town of Cambridge, and its inhabitants, the commissioners of Cambridge are authorized and empowered, in their discretion to construct, and erect water works in the said town, and to that end to purchase, or condemn land, to sink artesian wells, to purchase and erect suitable buildings, engines, machinery, stand pipe, fire plugs and fountains, and to procure and lay water mains and pipes, to construct reservoirs for fire purposes, and to do and furnish all things necessary and proper, for carrying into effect the purpose aforesaid, including the employment of such engineers, mechanics, laborers, and others, as may be required for the said purpose, and the said water works shall be the property of the said town, and upon the completion thereof the said commissioners are authorized, and empowered to change such water rents or rates for the use of said water, as may be fair and reasonable against all persons using the same, and such water rents or rates shall be collected in the same manner, as other town taxes, and shall be a lien on property to the same extent, or the commissioners of Cambridge if deemed more advantageous and desirable, instead of constructing and erecting water works, as aforesaid are