

CHAPTER 506.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section seventy-seven of article five of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Appeals and Errors," sub-title "Appeals in Criminal Cases."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section seventy-seven of article five of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Appeals and Errors," sub-title "Appeals in Criminal Cases," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows: Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 77. The parties to criminal proceedings shall be entitled to bills of exceptions, in the same manner as in civil proceedings, and appeals from judgments in criminal cases may be taken in the same manner as in civil cases; but no appeal in a criminal case shall stay execution of sentence unless the counsel for the accused shall make oath that the appeal is not taken for delay; and such appeal shall be heard at the earliest convenient day after the same shall have been transmitted to the Court of Appeals; and the accused upon taking such appeal shall, in all cases not punishable by death, or imprisonment in the penitentiary, be entitled to remain on bail, and in other cases not capital, the court from which the appeal is taken shall have the discretionary power to admit to bail; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the court from requiring additional or greater bail, pending an appeal than the accused may already have given before conviction. Parties to criminal proceedings.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 8th, 1892.
