

son offering to vote at any such election touching his qualification to vote; and after such examination, if the said judges shall be satisfied of his right to vote the said judges or one of them shall deliver to him a ballot such as is prescribed by the provisions of this article, and shall have been delivered to them by the Democratic district executive committee of the district in which such person so offered to vote, whereupon the voter shall forthwith and without leaving the enclosed space retire alone to one of the voting shelves or compartments and shall prepare his ballot, and then fold it as when delivered to him for delivery to the judges of election or one of them, and shall keep the same so folded until he has voted, he shall vote before he leaves the enclosed space, and shall hand the same to the judges or one of them with their official endorsement uppermost, he shall mark and deliver his ballot without undue delay to the judges or one of them and shall quit said enclosed space as soon as he has voted, no voter shall be allowed to occupy a voting shelf compartment for more than five minutes in case all such shelves or compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same; and the remaining provisions of sections one hundred and fifty-five, one hundred and fifty-six, one hundred and fifty-seven, and one hundred and fifty-eight of article fifty-three of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title, "Elections," are hereby incorporated herein and made part of this article, and it is furthermore provided that said voting shelves or compartments shall be furnished with curtains so arranged as effectually to conceal the person of the voter from the back of his head to the middle of his waist while in the act of preparing his ballot for voting.

Judges of election

153. The voting at such primary elections shall be as to voting rooms, ballots used, and manner of conducting the same modeled and carried on as nearly as may be according to the Australian ballot system, provided in the general election laws of the State. And it shall be the duty of the Democratic State Central Committee, assisted by the Democratic District Executive Committee to be selected and appointed as hereinafter provided to make all necessary and proper arrangements to carry into effect the provisions of the article according to its true intent and spirit.

Primary elections.

153 A. It shall be the duty of the Democratic Central Committee to appoint Democratic District Executive Committees to consist each of five intelligent and reliable Democrats for each of the several election districts of the county to be known as the Democratic District Executive Committee of the district for which it shall be named and

Duty of Democratic Central Committee.