

Sections added. Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "Sheriff," as they appear in chapter three hundred and ninety-five and five hundred and three of the acts of 1890, be and the same are hereby repealed and re enacted with amendments, and that a new section, be and the same is hereby added to said article to follow section 214 A, to be designated section 214 B, and to read as to said several section as follows :

Boarding prisoners of Anne Arundel County. 214. The Sheriff of Anne Arundel County shall be allowed for keeping and boarding prisoners committed to the jail of said county, the sum of thirty cents a day for each such prisoner, and the county commissioners shall have quarterly accountings with the sheriff for the same upon presentation of his accounts for the same with proper vouchers, and shall levy annually a sum sufficient for the payment of the same, and said account shall state the number of days and fractions of days each such prisoner was confined within said jail which shall be verified by the affidavit of said sheriff.

Jail record book. 214 A. The said sheriff shall keep at the jail a substantial well-bound book (to be supplied by said county commissioners) to be called "Jail record book of Anne Arundel County," the leaves whereof shall be ruled in parallel columns for the entry of the following particulars, viz ; the full name of the person received, his color, age, height, day and hour when received, by whom committed, and whether for a further hearing, in default of payment of fine and costs, for the action of the grand jury or under sentence for a definite time, the day and hour of release and by what authority released ; also a column for "Remarks" in which shall be entered any other particulars ; in case of death of any person confined in said jail, the sheriff shall enter in said record the cause of death as ascertained by the coroner's jury or otherwise, the date of such death, together with the time and place of burial or other disposition of the body of said deceased ; all commitments to and releases from jail shall be properly endorsed and filed away by said sheriff, together with all other official papers or matters connected with said jail as part of the records thereof and shall permanently remain thereat, and be turned over by each successive sheriff to his successor, and as compensation to said sheriff for making and keeping such record book, he shall receive one dollar, for each prisoner so received, registered and released, which said amount shall be levied by the county commissioners at their annual levy in each year, and paid by them quarterly, upon said sheriff presenting his vouchers duly sworn to.