

another jury of twenty inhabitants as aforesaid not upon the former jury; and the same proceedings shall be had in all respects as hereinbefore provided, and in case of a second or other disagreement of the jury, the same proceedings shall be had until a verdict or inquisition shall be made and returned and confirmed as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in the exercise of the powers of condemnation by said company for the acquisition use and occupation of property or land or any easements therein or right appurtenant thereto or water rights or materials for the location construction maintenance and operation or repair of its railroad or railroads, or any part thereof, sidings, switches, connections, depots, stations, yards, docks, wharves, and terminal facilities within the city of Baltimore, in the manner provided in section three of this act, the Superior Court of Baltimore City, the Court of Common Pleas, and the Baltimore City Court, and the clerks thereof and the sheriff of said city, and the jurors summoned by him from the inhabitants of said city, and any justice of the peace of said city, and all parties interested in the exercise of said powers of condemnation, shall respectively have the same powers and rights which are conferred, under section three of this act, upon the Circuit Courts of said counties, and the clerks thereof, and the sheriffs of said counties, and the jurors summoned by them from the inhabitants of said counties, and the justice of the peace of said counties, and the parties interested in the exercise of the powers under said section three of this act; and the inquisition shall be returned by the sheriff to the clerk of the court which may be named in the warrant of the justice of the peace; and said courts may confirm said inquisition at any time after the return of said inquisition to the clerk of said court, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown; but fifteen days after such return shall be allowed in which to file objections to the confirmation of any such inquisition.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the mayor and city council of Baltimore are hereby fully authorized and empowered to pass an ordinance or ordinances giving their consent to the location, route, construction and operation, by said railroad company of any of its railroads in the city of Baltimore, and prescribing the mode, terms and conditions of the building and construction thereof.

SEC. 6 And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to work an exemption from taxation of any of the property of said railroad company.