

County aforesaid, a full statement shall be made of the condition of said sinking fund and the securities thereof.

Sale of said bonds 7. The money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited by the said county commissioners to the credit of the board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County aforesaid in some national bank, and the same shall be drawn out only by check or warrant of said board and countersigned by at least three of said depositors, and in drawing checks or warrants relating to the affairs of said county signatures shall only be attached thereto in session of said board and when the body of said checks or warrants shall have been filled in.

Bonds. 8. The bonds of said Prince George's County heretofore as issued for issue by authority of chapter one hundred and twenty-one of the acts of eighteen hundred and ninety and now in custody of the county commissioners of said county shall be taken from their place of deposit before the bonds authorized by this act shall have been put upon the market for sale, and counted by the clerk of the county commissioners in the presence of said commissioners and of the treasurer of said county, and after having been so counted they shall be publicly burned and destroyed.

Signing of coupons 9. The coupons for the several semi-annual instalments of interest to accrue upon said bonds respectively, shall each be signed and countersigned, in like manner as said bonds, with the genuine signature of the president and clerks of said board of county commissioners.

Misapplication of funds 10. And be it enacted, That any misapplication of the fund provided for by this act by the said county commissioners shall render them and each and all of them participating in such misapplication or misuse, liable to indictment by the grand jury, and upon conviction, they shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than one nor more than five years, and limitation shall be no bar to said indictment.

Repealed. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Effective. SEC. 3 And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7th, 1892.
