

is hereby invested with the same power and authority as any constable has under the laws of the State; he shall make all collections required of him pay the same to the commissioners within six months from the time the tax bills are delivered to him, and shall perform such duties as the commissioners may direct.

Authority
of bailiff.

Violation
of ordinances.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the president shall preside at the meeting of the commissioners and in case of offences for violation of the ordinances (or any of them) of the town shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace, and shall be entitled in such cases to the same fees as justices of the peace in similar cases; and whenever a fine imposed by him exceeds the value of five dollars the party so fined shall have the same right of appeal to and trial before the Circuit Court for Calvert County, as from an appeal from the decision of a justice of the peace.

Fines, &c.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter or any ordinance of the commissioners, may be collected in their name as other small debts are collected, or a justice of the peace shall have power to commit such offenders to the county jail in default of payment of such fines and forfeitures and penalties until the same shall be paid with costs.

Power of commissioners.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year, and they shall have power to establish the original building lines on any streets in said town as far as practicable without removing present buildings, to establish building lines on any street hereafter opened and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.

Jurisdiction of county officers.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners, justices of the peace, constables, sheriffs and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted.

Non-use.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That neglect or non-use shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
