

Therefore be it resolved, That the joint committee aforesaid be and they are hereby authorized and empowered on behalf of the State of Maryland, to make known to the Legislature of Virginia, at such time and in such manner as may be agreeable to the said Legislature of Virginia the desire of the General Assembly of Maryland for such concurrent legislation touching and concerning the taking of oysters, fish and crabs in the waters of the Potomac and Pocomoke as shall tend to promote the most friendly relations between the said commonwealths and the mutual advantages of their respective citizens. Joint committee.

Be it further resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly of Maryland that there should be concurrent legislation between said States regulating the taking of oysters, fish and crabs in the said waters, not only as to the time and manner of taking them but also the size of the same when so taken. Concurrent legislation.

Be it further resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly of Maryland, that the citizens of the respective States aforesaid should have equal and like privileges of taking oysters, fish and crabs in and from the waters of the Potomac and Pocomoke. Equal privileges.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of this joint resolution be sent at once under the great seal of Maryland by the Secretary of State of Maryland, to the Governor of the commonwealth of Virginia with the respectful request that the same be communicated to the Legislature of Virginia, and that the will of the Legislature of Virginia, as to the time at which it will be agreeable to that body to receive the said joint committee of Maryland be communicated to the Governor of Maryland at as early a day as may be convenient. Copy to be sent to the Governor of Virginia

---

NO. 6.

Joint resolution instructing the Senators and requesting the Representatives in Congress from Maryland to take action with a view to securing and preserving Temple Farm and the Moore House at Yorktown, Virginia, by the United States.

WHEREAS, the Moore House and Temple Farm upon which it is situated at Yorktown, Virginia, will carry with them through all time the memories of the siege and victory by which the allied armies of France and the American colonies secured our nation's independence; and Preamble.