

volume second, provided, first, that said volume shall contain a table of cases, from first Hasris' and McHenry's reports to seventy-six, Maryland Reports, inclusive, comprising one hundred and seventeen volumes, a table of cross references to the contents of volumes first and second of said Index, so as to form a complete guide to both of said volumes and an accurate digest of the decisions contained in volumes sixty-two to volumes seventy-six inclusive of the Maryland Reports, comprising fifteen volumes, provided, further, that any three judges of the Court of Appeals shall certify that in their opinions the said second volume of said Index is well and faithfully executed and deserves the patronage of the State; and provided further, that said two hundred and fifty copies shall be exchanged for similar publications in other States and distributed as the State reports are now distributed by law, retaining thirty five copies for the use of the State Library, and provided further that the price of said second volume of said Index shall not exceed ten dollars per copy.

---

 NO. 13.

Joint resolutions requesting the Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States, to vote for and urge the passage of the bill now pending in Congress, known as the "Hatch bill," prohibiting the speculation in options and the dealing in "futures."

WHEREAS, there is now pending in the Congress of the United States, a bill to prohibit the speculation in "options" and dealing in "futures," which is for the protection of the agricultural interest of the country from the greed and pernicious practices of gamblers; therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That this General Assembly expresses an earnest desire that the Congress of the United States speedily pass the bill known as the "Hatch bill," to prohibit the dealing in "futures" and speculation in "options" and that a copy of this preamble and resolution be sent to the Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Preamble.

Futures and options.