

but no appeal shall be heard except during the time so fixed by such ordinance, which time shall be in the month of June or July in each year, and said city council shall make no changes in the assessments at any other time.

61. The mayor shall, on conviction in any court of law, of wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office, be removed from office by the Governor of the State, and the president of the council shall act as mayor until the next city election, as in case of a vacancy.

Removal of Mayor.

62. The mayor shall, by virtue of his office, see that the ordinances of the city are duly and faithfully executed; he shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the city council, all the officers of said city who are not made elective by the people or the city council (except the city treasurer, collector and police magistrates who shall be elected by the city council, and also excepting the water rent collector and superintendent of all other employees or officers of the water department who shall be appointed and be under the control of the board of water commissioners hereinafter provided for), he shall annually, on the first Monday in May, report to the council, in writing, the general state of the city, with an accurate account of the monies received and expended, which report shall be published in each of such two newspapers in said city, of opposite political faith, as shall be designated by the city council, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements; he shall have power to remove any of the officers, agents or servants by him appointed for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead; and shall report such removal and appointment to the city council at its next regular meeting for its approval or disapproval; he shall have general supervision of the city and shall submit from time to time to the council such recommendations as he shall deem proper; he shall also by virtue of his office, be chairman of the trustees of the sinking fund, and of the board of health, and shall discharge all the duties pertaining to such chairmanship, and shall receive for his services an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

Duties of Mayor

63. The city council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the constitution and laws of this State, as they may deem necessary for the good government of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, and from any lots adjoining thereto within the limits of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove or cause to be removed any houses or other buildings that may in their

City Council—power to pass Ordinances.