

Also,

House bill entitled an Act to repeal and re-enact with amendments, new section 137, of Article 33, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," as enacted by the Acts of 1890, chapter 538,

Endorsed: "Read the third time, and passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendment."

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Amend section 1 by inserting in line 87, after the words "so marked," the following: "Unless the voter by the erasure of one or more names in the column or group of which he has marked the party emblem or party name, shall have indicated for which of said candidates in the party column so marked he does not desire to vote, in this event the vote shall be counted for all the candidates under the party emblem or party name so marked except the name or names so erased, and for the candidate or candidates in the other party column or group opposite to whose names the voter shall have put his cross-mark."

Which was adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
