

The Secretary of the Senate appeared and delivered the following message:

House bill entitled an Act to add new sections to Article 23, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Telegraph Companies," to come in after sections 232 A, 232 B, 232 C, 232 D, 232 E, to regulate the rental and use of telephones in the cities, towns and villages in the State of Maryland.

Endorsed: "Vote by which bill was made the Order of the Day reconsidered."

Bill considered and amended; rules suspended; read the third time, and passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments.

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

After the word "section," in line 6, page one, strike out the letter "L," and insert in lieu thereof the figure "1."

Which was concurred in.

Also, in line 2, of section 1, strike out the word "section," and insert in lieu thereof the words "sections."

Which was concurred in.

Also, in line 5, section 1, strike out the word "section," and insert in lieu thereof the word "sections."

Which was concurred in.

Also, in line 19, section 232 A, after the word "dollar," insert the following, "per month for every."

Also, in line 5, section 232 E, after the word "hundred," insert the word dollars."

Which was concurred in.

Mr. Sams moved that the Chief Clerk be directed to place upon said (House bill printed No. 240, known as the telephone bill), the proper endorsements, which were omitted by a clerical error under the dates of March 18th, 23rd and 24th, 1892.

Which motion prevailed.

Said endorsements were then placed upon the bill by the Chief Clerk.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
