

Wilson, Orrick, Hamilton, Jr., Schlaffer, Anderson, Sterling, Smith, of Dorchester, Bryan, Wilkinson, McSherry, Grove, of Frederick, Stearns, Smith, of Washington, Laird, Sellman, Ellegood, Michaels—30.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal section 3, of Article 81, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Revenue and Taxes," sub-title "Valuation and Assessment," and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to repeal all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent therewith.

Mr. Field submitted the following proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend by striking out the word "par," in line 16 of section 3, and insert in lieu thereof the words "sixty per centum of their face value."

Also,

In line 17, strike out the words "eighty-five," and insert in lieu thereof the word "fifty."

And in line 18, strike out the word "eighty," and insert in lieu thereof the words "forty-five."

Insert in line 18, after the word "dollars," the words "such as bear an interest of four per centum at forty dollars on the hundred dollars, and such as bear interest of three and one half per centum at thirty-five dollars on the hundred dollars."

Strike out the words "sixty-four," in line 19, and insert in lieu thereof the word "thirty."

Insert at the end of section 3 the words "and all assessors and other tax officials whose duty it shall be by law to make and revise assessments or valuations of such securities as hereinbefore described, shall make such assessment and revision in accordance with the provisions of this Act, any law to the contrary notwithstanding."

Which were severally read and adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.—Messrs. Speaker, Combs, Garner, Strong, Wilson, Brashears, Donaldson, Hutchins, Sappington, of Anne Arundel, Ireland, Lane, Carrico,
