

REPORT:

The report of the Conference Committee on the House amendments to Senate Bill, printed, No. 153, amending the militia law of this State, respectfully recommend that the House recede from its amendment, and that the following words in lines 21 and 22 be stricken from the bill: "Provided that the integrity of said regiment and the Second Battalion shall not in any way be impaired or destroyed," and that the following words be inserted in the place of the above words stricken out: "Provided the integrity of the Second Battalion shall not be impaired or destroyed, so long as said Battalion shall maintain its efficiency in numbers and organizations as now required by law."

GEO. A. PEARRE,
JOHN WALTER SMITH,
ROBERT MOSS,

On part of the Senate.

CHAS. W. FIELD,
JOSEPH W. GAVER,
SAML. A. WALLEN,

On part of the House.

Which was adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
