

rules suspended, read the third time and passed by yeas and nays."

House bill entitled an Act to add an additional section to the Code of Public Local Laws, Article 9, title "Charles County," sub title "Roads and Bridges."

Endorsed: "Read the third time and passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments."

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Strike out the last section of the bill.

Also, in line 4 of title, after letter "A," add words "and 160 B," and after word "to," in same line, strike out the words "regulate the building of," and insert the words "to license persons engaged in hauling."

In line 5 of section 1, after letter "A," add words "and 160 B."

Also, strike out all after letter "A," in line 5 of section 1, and insert as follows:

"It shall be lawful for the County Commissioners of Charles county, in their discretion, to require all persons who may engage in hauling heavy timber (not cord-wood) in Charles county for commercial purposes, between the first day of December of any year and the first day of May following, to pay a license not exceeding the sum of five dollars per month, and if the said license shall be imposed all money derived therefrom shall be applied to the county road fund."

Also,

Add new section, to be known as "160 B," to read as follows: "If the County Commissioners should impose such a license, any person regulating or refusing to procure the same, shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, in the discretion of the Court trying the case, said fine to be collected as other fines and forfeitures."

Which were severally read and concurred in.

Said bill, as amended, was then passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
