

Mr. Sams submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

January 18, 1892.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

Inasmuch as Tuesday, January 19th, 1892, will be the second Tuesday after the meeting and organization of this Legislature at its January session, 1892, we propose, with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, that the Senate and House of Delegates shall, respectively, proceed openly at the hour of 12 o'clock, Meridian, on said January 19th, 1892, in their respective Chambers, in the manner provided by title 2, chapter 1, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, by the viva voce vote of each member present in said Senate and House of Delegates, respectively, to name one person as a Senator in Congress from this State for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, whose term will then expire; and that the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Delegates shall, at 12 o'clock, Meridian, on Wednesday, January 20th, 1892, convene in Joint Assembly, in the Hall of the House of Delegates, in accordance with the provisions of title 2, chapter 1, of the said Revised Statutes of the United States; and that the Speaker of the House of Delegates shall be chairman of such Joint Assembly; and that the business of electing a Senator in Congress from this State in succession to the Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, for the term aforesaid, shall then be proceeded with by said Joint Assembly in accordance with the provisions of title 2, chapter 1, of said Revised Statutes of the United States.

By order,

CARLTON SHAFER,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.
