

BY THE SENATE,
January 18th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message proposing that the Senate and the House of Delegates shall respectively proceed openly at the hour of 12 o'clock Meridian, on January 19th, 1892, in their respective Chambers, in the manner provided by title 2, chapter 1, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, by the viva voce vote of each member present in said Senate and House of Delegates respectively, to name one person as a Senator in Congress from this State for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, whose term of office will then expire, and that the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Delegates shall, at 12 o'clock Meridian, on Wednesday, January 20th, 1892, convene in Joint Assembly in the Hall of the House of Delegates, in accordance with the provisions of title 2, chapter 1, of the said Revised Statutes of the United States; and that the Speaker of the House of Delegates shall be chairman of such Joint Assembly; and that the business of electing a Senator in Congress from this State in succession to the Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, for the term aforesaid, shall then be proceeded with by said Joint Assembly in accordance with the provisions of title 2, chapter 1, of said Revised Statutes of the United States, and we concur therein.

By order,
W. G. PURNELL,
Secretary.

Which was read.

Also the following message :

BY THE SENATE,
January 18th, 1892.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message proposing that the Senate and House of Delegates, respectively, on January 19th, 1892, in their respective Chambers, immediately after the naming by the votes of their respective members in the manner prescribed by the Revised