

Statutes of the United States, a person as Senator in Congress from this State in succession to Hon. A. P. Gorman, and after the entry on the respective journals of the Senate and House of Delegates of the results of such respective votes, shall proceed openly, on said January 19th, 1892, in their respective Chambers, in the manner provided by title 2, chapter 1, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, by the viva voce vote of each member present in said Senate and House of Delegates, respectively, to name one person as a Senator in Congress from this State to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Hon. Ephraim K. Wilson, a Senator in the Congress of the United States from this State, who died during the recess of the Legislature of this State, for the term ending on the fourth day of March, 1897, and that the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Delegates shall, at 12 o'clock, Meridian, on Wednesday, January 20th, 1892, convene in Joint Assembly in the Hall of the House of Delegates, in accordance with the provisions of title 2 chapter 1 of the said Revised Statutes of the United States, and that the Joint Assembly, after proceeding as heretofore ordered with the business of electing a Senator in Congress from this State in succession to Hon. A. P. Gorman, shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of title 2, chapter 1 of said Revised Statutes, with the business of electing a Senator in Congress from this State to fill the vacancy for the term ending on the 4th of March, 1897, caused by the death of the Hon. Ephraim K. Wilson, and we concur therein.

By order,

W. G. PURNELL,
Secretary.
