

NIGHT SESSION.

THURSDAY, March 10th, 1892.

The House resumed its session at 8 P. M.

Present at the call of the roll the following members :

Messrs. Speaker, Combs, Wilson, Brashears, Donaldson, Hutchins, Sappington, of Anne Arundel, Lane, Carrico, Orrick, Cole, Elliott, Hamilton, Jr., Collins, Wooters, Leonard, Anderson, Sterling, Smith, of Dorchester, Miles, Kirk, Grove, of Cecil, Bowie, of Prince George's, Hill, Bryan, Wallen, Franklin, Wilkinson, Hayman, McSherry, Gaver, Sappington, of Frederick, Bevard, Hayward, Stearns, Johnson, Thompson, Fitzgerald, Brennan, Carter. Bowie, of Baltimore city, Sams, Joyce, Fockler, Shafer, Laird, Griffith, Barber, Young, Hosken, Sr., Stottlemyer, Tracey, Ellegood, Laws, Moore, Bittinger—56.

 PETITIONS, MEMORIALS AND OTHER PAPERS.

The Speaker laid before the House the following communications :

OFFICE OF
SECRETARY FEDERATION OF LABOR,
Baltimore, March 10th, 1892.

To the State Senate and House of Delegates of Maryland, Greeting :

The Baltimore Federation of Labor, at their weekly meeting, March 9th, 1892, unanimously resolved to memorialize your Honorable Bodies in favor of the "Weekly Pay Bill," now pending in the Legislature.

The above organization is composed of skilled and unskilled labor, representing in the aggregate 43,000 wage earners, and as above signified, are unanimous in their desire for the passage of the above bill.