

this State, showing the fact that Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, at the vote so taken for a Senator in Congress from this State for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, whose term will then expire, had received (a majority of the members elected to said Senate being present and voting,) a majority of all the votes of the said Senate for Senator in Congress from this State, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893.

After which the Clerk of the House of Delegates read the Journal of the proceedings of the House of Delegates on the preceding day, in relation to the election of a Senator in Congress in this State, showing the fact that Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, at the vote so taken for a Senator in Congress from this State for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, whose term will then expire, had received (a majority of the members elected to said House of Delegates being present and voting,) a majority of all the votes of the said House of Delegates for Senator in Congress from this State, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, for the term of six years from March 4th, 1893.

It appearing upon the reading of said respective Journals of Proceedings in said Senate and said House of Delegates on the said day, that Hon. Arthur P. Gorman had so received a majority of all the votes in said Senate, and had so received a majority of all the votes in the said House of Delegates for Senator in Congress as aforesaid, the Chairman of said Joint Assembly declared that Hon. Arthur P. Gorman having received a majority of all the votes in the said Senate and a majority of all the votes in the said House of Delegates, is duly elected a Senator in Congress from the State of Maryland, for the period of six years from March 4th, 1893, in succession to Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, whose term will then expire.

The Secretary of the Senate then read the Journal of the proceedings of the Senate on the preceding day in relation to a Senator, showing the fact that no person at the vote so taken had received a majority of all the votes of said Senate for Senator in Congress in this State to fill the vacancy caused by the death of
