

The Secretary of the Senate appeared and delivered the following message:

House bill entitled an Act to add an additional section to Article 4, Code of Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title, "Licenses," to be known as "Section 664 A," authorizing the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to license and regulate telegraph, telephone and electric light poles in the streets, lanes and alleys of said city.

Endorsed: "Read the third time, and passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments."

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend by striking out "and from telephone and electric light poles," and inserting after these words, when amended, the words "and electric railway poles."

Which was adopted.

Also, amend by striking out the amendment attached to the bill entitled "amendment proposed," and which reads as follows:

Amend by striking out "and from telephone and electric light poles and alleys," inserting after the words "where amended," the words "and electric railway poles."

Which was adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then rejected by yeas and nays, as follows:
