

limits of said town all the jurisdiction and power of a justice of the peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and may call special meetings of the Commissioners whenever he may see proper.

Call special meetings.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, may meet together from time to time and at such times and as often as occasion may require upon the business of said town, but not less than once in every three months; and if during the term for which they may be elected or hold office any of said Commissioners should die or resign, remove from said town, refuse to act or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill such vacancy shall, on ten days' notice thereof being given by the Commissioners, be held, at which election all persons qualified as prescribed in section three of this act shall be entitled to vote.

May meet.

Once in every three months

Election to fill vacancy.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint annually a clerk from their number to serve for one year, or until his successor is elected, and said commissioners shall assign his duties and allow him such compensation as they may think proper, and all ordinances passed by said commissioners shall be recorded by their clerk in a book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be by said clerk posted at three of the most public places in said town that the same may be generally known, and the said clerk shall record in a separate book the proceedings of said board.

Power to appoint clerk.

Duties and compensation.

All ordinances passed

Open for inspection.

Record proceedings.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to make all such ordinances, by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and efficient for the promotion of the comfort, health and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants, for the suppression of vice and immorality, and for the prevention or removal of nuisances within the limits of said town, and shall have power to levy every year an equal

Make ordinances, &c

Comfort, health, &c.

Vice and immorality.