

paper filed in the insurance department, the sum of twenty cents per folio; and for affixing the official seal to such copy and certifying the same, one dollar; for valuing policies of life insurance companies, thirty dollars per million of insurance, or any fractional part thereof; for official examinations of companies under this act, the actual expenses incurred; provided, that the filing of the papers with the Insurance Commissioner, as required by this act, shall be in lieu of all papers now required by law to be filed with the Comptroller and Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city.

In lieu of all papers.

32. Any person, body politic or corporate who shall make, negotiate or solicit within this State any contract of insurance, or shall affect an insurance or insurances, or pretend to effect an insurance or insurances, or receive and transmit any offer or offers of insurance or insurances, or receive or deliver a policy or policies of insurance, or connect any other person or persons with them in any policy they may at the time hold, or advertise or circulate any card, circular, notice, or open or keep any office for the transaction of said business, except as insurance broker duly licensed, without fully complying with all the provisions of this act, shall be subject to the fines imposed by section thirty-six of this act.

Any person, &c.

Be subject to fines.

33. Every insurance company, including individuals, partnerships, joint stock associations and corporations, conducting any branch of insurance business in this State, must transmit to the Insurance Commissioner a statement of its condition and business for the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, which statement shall be rendered on the first day of January following or within sixty days thereafter (except that foreign companies may transmit their statement of business, other than that done in the United States at any time prior to the following first day of July), which statements must be in the form and state the particulars required by the blanks prescribed by the Insurance Commissioner; and he may require at any time statements from any company doing business within this State, or from any of its officers or agents, on such points as he may deem necessary and proper to Every company must transmit.

Shall be rendered

May require statements.