

CHAPTER 136.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and thirty-eight of article sixteen of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Chancery," as enacted by chapter four hundred and twenty-eight, of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, as enacted by chapter three hundred and seventy, of the acts of the General Assembly, passed at the January session in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, and to re-enact the said section with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and thirty-eight, of article sixteen, of the Code of Public General Laws, as enacted by chapter four hundred and twenty-eight, of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, as enacted by chapter three hundred and seventy, of the acts of the General Assembly, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repealed and re-enacted.

138. In all cases where a trustee has been appointed by will or deed to execute any trust, and any person interested in such trust, shall make it appear to the court that it is necessary for the safety of those interested in the execution of the trust, that the trustee should give bond and security for the due execution of the trust, the court may order that such bond be given, on or before such day as the court shall name, and if the bond with such security as the court shall approve be not given by such trustee, then the court may remove such trustee and appoint one in his stead, who shall give such bond and security as the court may require. Interested in such trust.
Court may order.
Give bond and security.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

Approved March 27, 1878.