

CHAPTER 150.

AN ACT to repeal section three hundred and thirteen, of article eleven, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," and re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section three hundred and thirteen, of article eleven, of the Code of Public Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Swine and Geese," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

Swine or geese.

Shall charge.

All emoluments

In force.

313. No swine or geese belonging to any inhabitant of Creagerstown, in Frederick county, shall be allowed to go at large in said town, and that if either be found going at large, it shall be the duty of the justices of the peace, upon the information of any one citizen of said town, or upon their own personal knowledge of the same, to have said swine or geese impounded, and shall charge the owners one dollar for each swine and twenty-five cents for each goose so found at large, which charge shall be in the nature of a fine, and shall retain them until such fine or fines are paid. All emoluments arising from said fines to be paid to the trustees of the public schools, for the school district in which said town is located, for the use of the public schools in said school district.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27, 1878.
