

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the County Commissioners shall keep an accurate account of the assessment, or rate of taxes assessed upon the taxable property of said county, and how such assessment is disposed of, in a book to be kept for that purpose alone; and said clerk shall, within twenty days after such assessment, deliver a fair copy of so much thereof as it shall be his duty to collect, to each collector of said county.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That every collector receiving a copy of such assessment or rate shall, within thirty days thereafter, proceed to collect the same, and shall pay the same to the said Treasurer of Dorchester county, or his order, within six months after receiving the copy aforesaid; and all moneys levied for educational purposes by the said County Commissioners shall be levied separately and distinctly from the other items of taxation, and shall in no year be less than ten thousand dollars, and a list thereof shall by them be furnished to the School Commissioners of the said county; and the collectors shall make return of all said tax collected upon the days required by law for the return of the State school taxes; and if any collector shall fail to perform his duties as directed in this section, he shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Dorchester county, shall be fined not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every collector of State and county taxes shall account for and pay to the said county Treasurer two-thirds thereof respectively by the first day of April succeeding the date of the levy of said taxes, and the remaining third by the first day of December thereafter; provided, that no collector shall receive any commissions, or other compensation in lieu thereof, for the collection of any taxes remaining unpaid by him at said last mentioned date.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That every collector shall on all sums paid by him to said county treasurer on or before the fifteenth day of September of the year for which the taxes are levied, be allowed a deduction of five per cent.; on all sums paid by
