

number five, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seven, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eight, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number nine, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number ten, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eleven, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number twelve, two justices of the peace and two constables.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take In force. effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 29, 1878.

CHAPTER 192.

AN ACT to enlarge the powers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Maryland.

Whereas the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Maryland, a corporation duly incorporated and organized under the General Laws of Maryland, act of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter four hundred and seventy-six, for the purpose of constructing and operating a railroad from a point at the State line, near Ellerslie, to and within the city of Cumberland; and said company is now ready to build said road into said city with proper depot and terminal facilities for general freight and passenger traffic, and also to connect with the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. Preamble

And whereas the only inlet for said railroad to said city or canal is through the precipitous mountain gorge near said city known as "The Narrows," through which the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad is now operated on the east side of Wills creek; now, therefore, Preamble;