

streets and alley-ways, and may also open such streets and alley-ways as may have been closed up.

145. The bounds of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a culvert over the Little Tonolaway Creek, west of Hancock, running east with the Berm bank of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to a ravine near the house formerly owned by Jacob Fry, thence with said ravine north one-fourth of a mile; thence due west to Tonolaway Creek; thence with the bed of said creek to the place of beginning.

Bounds of town.

146. The male citizens of Hancock of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who have resided in said town for twelve months preceding the election, shall, on the first Monday in April in each year, elect by ballot a burgess, assistant burgess, and three commissioners, having in all respects the same qualifications as the voters.

Voters shall elect burgess and commissioners.

147. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation not contrary to this charter; provided, that no failure to hold elections or meetings, or to do any other act prescribed by this charter, shall work a forfeiture thereof, or in any way impair the force and virtue of the same.

Elections—how conducted.

148. If, during the year for which they were elected, the burgess, assistant burgess or any of the commissioners shall die, resign, remove from the town, be non compos mentis or displaced, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held after ten days' notice, and all persons qualified to vote at a regular election may vote at such special election.

Vacancies—how filled.

149. At all elections the persons who receive the highest number of votes for the respective offices voted for shall be declared duly elected, and if at any election any two or more persons shall have an equal number of votes, by which no choice shall be made, a second election shall be held after not less than ten days' notice, and so on until a choice is made.

Equal vote. Another election.

150. The burgess, assistant burgess and commissioners shall each qualify as such before a justice of the Shall qualify.