

Delinquents fined. and on failure to make such payments, they may impose uniform fines upon the delinquent stockholders of not more than five cents per share for each and every such neglect to pay, and collect said payments and fines by suit or sale of stock at public auction after due notice, and transfer the stock so sold to the purchaser, as the board of directors may determine.

Power to increase capital stock. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the board of directors shall have power to increase the capital stock of said bank to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, or any part thereof, in shares of fifty dollars each, and receive subscriptions therefor at any time; and such additional stock shall be subject to all the liabilities, rights, immunities and privileges of the original stock; the board of directors may declare dividends upon said capital stock, upon an equitable and uniform basis of calculation of profits, as to the time of payment of instalments on said stock, provided said dividends do not reduce the surplus of profits of said bank below five per cent. on the amount of capital actually paid in.

May declare dividends.

Deposits by minors or married women. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That whenever any deposit shall be made by a minor the board of directors may, at their discretion, pay to such depositor such sum or sums as may be due him or her, and the check, receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be valid; and that the deposits of married women shall be received, held and paid out on the same terms and conditions as those of other adult persons, any law or statute of this State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stockholders liable. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the stockholders of said bank shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in said bank for all its indebtedness and liabilities upon notes, bills or otherwise; the books, papers and accounts of said bank shall be open to inspection under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Principal office. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the principal office of the said bank shall be located in the town of Havre-de-Grace, in Harford county.