

SCHOOLS.

To the several counties and the city of Baltimore for the support of the system of Free Public Schools, white and colored, and for the State Normal School and State Board of Education, to be apportioned by the Comptroller according to law, three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, or whatever sum may be paid into the treasury on account of the public school tax, and such other sums as may be received to the credit of the free school fund from tax on the circulation of banks and from the interest on stocks standing to the credit of said fund, together with the sum of thirty-four thousand and sixty-nine dollars and thirty-six cents, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be placed to the credit of the free school fund in accordance with the provisions of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter thirty-three, and substituted for the interest on the surplus revenue as provided in said act; provided that the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars of the receipts for public school tax shall be distributed for colored schools, after deducting the amount payable to the colored Normal School, and the balance for white schools, the State Normal School for whites and the State Board of Education. For donations to colleges, academies and schools, as per acts and resolutions of the General Assembly heretofore passed, thirty-eight thousand dollars; provided that none of the appropriations to colleges, academies and schools shall be paid to any such institutions unless such institutions shall have made a full report as required by law; to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Frederick, eighteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars; St. Mary's Industrial School, six thousand dollars; to the Maryland Industrial School for Girls, twenty-two hundred and fifty dollars; to the Maryland Agricultural College, four thousand five hundred dollars.

Schools.

LEGISLATURE.

To pay the members and officers of the General Assembly, including postage, stationery, mileage and miscellaneous expenses and the per diem of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Legislature.