

shall be the duty of said inspector to weigh at said scales all hay, straw, cattle, or other commodities there offered to him to be weighed; and he shall be entitled to demand and receive for each and every load of hay or straw weighing thirty hundred pounds and upwards forty-five cents, and for all loads less, one-and-a-half cents per hundred pounds, and a like rate per hundred pounds for all other commodities, and which sums so received shall suffice as compensation for holding such office to the extent of three hundred dollars per annum, all sums in excess of said amount to be paid into the treasury of the State. Compensat'n

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all hay and straw brought into said town of Havre-de-Grace for sale and consumption therein shall be weighed at said scales, and if any person so bringing hay and straw therein shall neglect to have the same weighed at said scales, or shall be detected in having stones, rubbish, wood, or anything else concealed in his load, or shall in any manner change the condition of his cart or wagon with a fraudulent intent, he shall forfeit and pay for each and every such offence the sum of five dollars, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, to be recovered in the manner that small debts are now recovered. Penalty for fraudulent attempt.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That said scales shall be adjusted at least once in every six months by the standard of weights for the city of Baltimore, the expenses of which adjustment shall be paid by the inspector, and all expenses or repairs incident to the keeping of said scales in good and perfect order shall be paid by the commissioners of said town. How adjust'd Approved April 5, 1878.