

conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the county in which said act has been violated, shall pay a fine of thirty dollars, and forfeit such seine or seines and the boat or boats and materials used in fishing the same, and upon trial and conviction, the seine or seines, boat or boats, and other fixtures used by said offender or offenders, shall be forfeited and sold to the highest bidder by the proper authorities, and the proceeds, together with the fine, after deducting the costs, shall be paid to the County Commissioners of the county in which said offence shall be committed, for the use of the school fund of said county.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, on conviction, failing to pay the fine, as prescribed in the preceding section, shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which said offence shall be committed; provided, however, that any one so offending shall upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the county in which said offence was committed, have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court of the county in which said offence shall be committed, under the same restrictions governing appeals from the decisions of justices of the peace.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

Approved April 5, 1878.

CHAPTER 277.

AN ACT to repeal sections forty-nine and fifty of article eighteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Saint Mary's County," sub-title "Leonardtown," and re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections forty-nine and fifty of
