

CHAPTER 281.

AN ACT to extend the limits of Crisfield by annexing a part of Crisfield district, in Somerset county, and to provide for taking the vote of the people residing in said part or portion to be so annexed for or against such annexation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of Crisfield district, in Somerset county, lying between the present limits of Crisfield and the metes and bounds hereinafter named, be and the same is hereby annexed to and made a part of the town of Crisfield, to wit: Beginning at the present boundary of the said town set up at Hammock Point, thence by a straight line, touching the southeast corner of Henry F. Gewitt's house, to the new county road from the high school to Asbury church, thence by a straight line to a point on the east side of the Eastern Shore Railroad and the north side of the new county road, through the lands of James H. Wards, to Mariner's church, where the said railroad and county road cross each other, and from the said intersection by a straight line to the most westerly point of land or marsh projecting into the Little Annessex river, on the west side thereof, near David Marsh's house, northward of the said town of Crisfield, and thence in a straight line to the bounds of said town set up on Long Point; provided the provisions of the act for taking the sense of the people by ballot shall be complied with.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Crisfield shall designate two justices of the peace in and for Somerset county, who shall select and appoint three judges of election, and shall administer an oath to the said judges similar to the oath prescribed for judges of elections at general elections in the State, and said judges shall preside at any election held as provided hereafter in this act to take the sense of the people as to the annexation of the said part of Crisfield district.
