

peace upon being arrested on warrant from any justice of the peace of said county, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for every such offence, and shall also forfeit the boat or vessel used or employed in such violation of this act; and the said boat or vessel so forfeited and condemned, shall be sold by the officer making the seizure or arrests, upon ten days' notice of such sale, for cash, together with the sails and furniture of said boat or vessel, and the implements on board said boat used in such illegal taking of oysters; and one-half the proceeds of said sale shall be paid to the informer and party making the said seizure, and the balance shall be paid to the use of the public schools of said county; and any party interested shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Somerset county from the judgment of any justice of the peace trying any cause arising for the violation of any of the provisions of this act.

Penalty for violation.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

Approved April 1, 1878.

---

CHAPTER 374.

AN ACT to provide for surveying and marking the boundary line between the States of Maryland and Virginia, as ascertained and determined by the arbitrators heretofore appointed on the part of Maryland and Virginia respectively.

Whereas the arbitrators to whom were submitted the controversies between the States of Maryland and Virginia, concerning their territorial limits, have filed their award determining and declaring the boundary line of the said States, so far as they are conterminous; and whereas it is necessary that said boundary line should be surveyed and designated by Preamble.