

CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT giving the sanction of the General Assembly of Maryland to a deed or conveyance to be made by John W. Kennedy, trustee, or by the heirs of James W. Kennedy, or by the heirs of Hugh Kennedy, or of any one of them, of certain lots of ground in Hagerstown, Maryland, to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in Hagerstown.

Preamble.

Whereas Hugh Kennedy, of Washington county, deceased, by the last will and testament devised and bequeathed to the officers and congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Hagerstown, all his right, title and interest to a lot of ground and buildings known on the plat of said town as lot number two hundred and thirty-one, and also ten or twelve feet of ground on the south side of said lot; and whereas John Kennedy, by deed, dated seventeenth June, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, conveyed all his right, title and interest in said property and premises to John W. Kennedy and James Kennedy, in trust, that they should hold the same for the use of the said Presbyterian Church of Hagerstown, and when the same was incorporated should convey said property, right and interest in the same, to the said Presbyterian Church.

Sanction given.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sanction is hereby given to the deed or conveyance which really be made to the Presbyterian Church of Hagerstown of the property mentioned in the deed of John Kennedy, dated seventeenth June, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, and of record among the land records of Washington county, Liber R. R., folio sixty-eight to seventy, by the trustees, or either of them, mentioned in said deed, or by the heirs at law of the said John Kennedy, or by any trustee or person appointed by a court of equity or otherwise, to make such deed or conveyance; provided, however, and the acceptance of the sanction of the General Assembly of Maryland hereby given, or the exercise of any power given by this act, or the making of any such deeds,
