

act, it shall not be lawful for any person to erect a gate upon or across any public road in Calvert county, where there is not now a gate already erected; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace for Calvert county, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than fifty nor less than ten dollars, which fine shall be collected as other small debts are, and shall be paid to the County Commissioners of said county. Unlawful to erect gates.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That on and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty, it shall not be lawful for any person to keep on any public road, between the village of St. Leonards, in said county, and the Anne Arundel line, and used as a mail route in said county, any gate without the permission of the County Commissioners of said county; and any person violating this section shall, on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than fifty or less than ten dollars, which fine shall be collected as other small debts are, and shall be paid to the County Commissioners of said county. Must obtain permission.

Approved April 5, 1878.

---

CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT for the better protection of partridges, woodcock, pheasants and rabbits in Baltimore county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill or have in possession in Baltimore county any partridge between the twenty-fourth day of December, said day included, and the first day of October next ensuing, in each and every year; nor any woodcock between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June; nor any pheasant Unlawful to shoot partridges, &c.