

Public Local Laws, under the head of "Alleghany county," relating to birds, be repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

193. And be it enacted, That no person within Alleghany county shall at any time kill or destroy any blue bird, swallow, martin, finch, thrush, sparrow, wren, oriole or wood-pecker, under the penalty of five dollars for each bird so killed or destroyed. Penalty for killing birds, &c.

194. And be it enacted, That no person shall kill or destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, or any partridge between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of October, under a penalty of five dollars for each pheasant or partridge so killed or destroyed. Penalty for killing pheasants, &c.

195. And be it enacted, That no person shall kill or destroy any wood-cock between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June, or any robin between the first day of April and the first day of March, or any wild-turkey between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of October, under a penalty of five dollars for each wood-cock, robin or wild-turkey so killed or destroyed. Penalty for killing wood-cocks, &c.

196. And be it enacted, That no person shall kill or destroy any rabbit between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of October, under a penalty of five dollars for each rabbit so killed or destroyed. Penalty for killing rabbits.

197. And be it enacted, That no person shall have in his possession in said county any partridge, pheasant, wood-cock, robin, wild-turkey or rabbit, within the times in which the killing or destroying of the same is herein prohibited, nor shall any person at any time wilfully molest or destroy the eggs or nests of any of the birds mentioned in this act, or trap, net or ensnare in any manner, any partridge, wild-turkey or rabbit, or have the same in possession under a penalty of five dollars for each egg or nest molested or destroyed, or partridge, wild-turkey or rabbit trapped, netted, en- Penalty for wilfully molesting nests, &c.