

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the objects of the said corporation shall be to promote the advancement of agriculture, horticulture, the mechanic arts and the manufactures dependent on or connected therewith, the improvement of the breeds of all domestic animals associated with farming, and for the encouraging and effecting the development of the resources of the said county, and in carrying out the said objects; the said corporation may hold one or more fairs or meetings in each year, at such places as it may select for the exhibition and trial of such animals as it may deem proper, for all kinds of products of the farm and garden, agricultural and other implements, and all other things worthy of being exhibited before the public, and may offer and give such premiums as it may determine on for superiority in the object sought for.

Objects to be accomplished

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said corporation be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue certificates of stock in said corporation to the sum of fifty thousand dollars, at such price for each share of said stock as the said corporation may determine upon, and the certificates of stock issued heretofore by the said association shall be as good, valid and binding against the said corporation as if issued under and by virtue of this act.

Authorized to issue certificates of stock

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of preserving order, enforcing the rules and regulations of the said corporation not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and the protection of property, the several justices of the peace in Wicomico county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, upon the request of the president of the said association, to summon and detail in the name of the State of Maryland, such constabulary force as they may deem sufficient for the perfect preservation of peace and order, the protection of property, and the full enforcement of the rules and regulations aforesaid, during any fair or exhibition of the said corporation, and upon and around the grounds belonging to or controlled by the same, which detailed force aforesaid shall have and exercise the same powers and authority as the several constables in this State now do as conservators of the peace.

Summon and detail constabulary force