

the powers of a constable; and the said bailiff shall give bond, to be approved by the County Commissioners, as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty as constable; and the said bailiff shall execute a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the Mayor, to the Mayor and City Council of Havre-de Grace, in such penalty as they may require, for the faithful performance of his duties as city bailiff, and for his accountability to the corporation for all sums that may come into his hands as collector of city tax, and for the faithful performance of such duties as may be imposed upon him by the ordinances of the City Council; for wilful neglect to discharge or refusal to perform the duties imposed on him as such officer, the Mayor may remove him from his office and submit the matter to the City Council for approval or disapproval.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a correct minute of the proceedings of the City Council, and shall make publication by advertisement in one or more newspapers in the city, or by handbill, of all ordinances passed for the police regulation of said city; that he shall enter in a book kept for that purpose all ordinances passed by the Council, and said book shall be kept open for the inspection of all parties interested; that he shall keep all the accounts of the corporation; that he shall make out the tax list and perform such other duties in connection with his office as the Council shall require of him.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and City Council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the constitution and laws of the State, as they may deem necessary for the good government of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, and from any lots adjoining thereto within the limits of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove or cause to be removed any houses or other buildings that may in their judgment become dangerous; they may pass ordinances to cause the streets, lanes and alleys to be paved, graded, repaved, drained and sewered; they may erect or establish market-houses and regulate markets; they may erect or establish houses of correc-