

liquors and medicated bitters producing intoxication, as heretofore specified in this act, shall be sold or disposed of, as hereinbefore specified, in such election district; and the clerk of said court shall give special notice thereof to the sheriff of said county, whose duty it shall be, under penalty for neglect or refusal as is now or hereafter may be provided by law for such neglect or refusal in regard to proclamation of other elections held in this State, to give notice of the same at the time he shall give notice of the election to be held for a member of Congress of the United States from the said first congressional district of Maryland next following the filing of said petition and passing of the order thereon hereinbefore specified.

When to give notice.

SEC 9. And be it enacted, That such election shall be held as provided in sections one and two of this act, and the results thereof so proclaimed, and if a majority of votes are cast "For license" in any such election district, then the provisions of section three of this act shall apply to such election district wherein such election has been had and such majority cast; and if a majority of votes are cast "Against license," then the provisions of sections four and five of this act shall apply to such election district wherein such election has been held and such majority cast.

Results to be proclaimed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every expense attending any such election shall be borne and paid by said county; and if the said judges of election, or any of them, or the clerk of said court, shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of them by any section of this act, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction therefor shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars and costs for such offence, and stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

Expenses—how borne.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the provisions of section three of this act, as to license for sale of liquor or other fermented spirits, shall apply not only to every election district of said county wherein such sale is now prohibited by law, but may hereafter be licensed by a vote of the people of such

Where to apply