

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners may impose such fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of their ordinances as they may think proper, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence, and for non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures, may commit the offender to some place of confinement, as provided in section eleven of this act, for a period not exceeding thirty days, and may pass all ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them.

Impose fines, &c.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That said commissioners may make such by-laws or ordinances for the regulation, good government, improvement and comfort of said town and the inhabitants thereof; to restrain disorders and disturbances and prevent and remove all nuisances within said town as to them, or a majority of them, may seem proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and may enforce the observance thereof under such penalties, fines and forfeitures as they shall deem proper, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence; and all such fines, penalties and forfeitures may be recovered before any justice of the peace within the limits of said town by warrant, judgment, and commitment to the public jail of Prince George's county, or in such place of confinement as said commissioners shall establish within the limits of said town, in the same manner that commitments are made for fines and penalties imposed by the Circuit Court of this State on conviction for misdemeanor; but the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power at any time to remit or release the said fines, penalties and forfeitures, or any part thereof, at their discretion; but any party who shall be fined or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture, may, within five days after the same shall be imposed and judgment recovered, supersede or stay the same for thirty days by giving ample personal security to the justice of the peace; and the said fines, penalties and forfeitures shall thereafter be collected as small debts are now collected, before a justice of the peace.

Make by-laws and ordinances.

Fines—how recovered.

May remit fines.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the assessment of the taxable property within the limits of the corporation, as made by the assessors of Prince George's county, or as may be provided by existing laws, or

What shall be basis of taxation.