

Absence or disability. resident in said town, or in case of sickness, absence or disability of the said justice of the peace, resident in said town, that the hearing of the cases or transactions of the business assigned to said justice of the peace by this act may be had before some other justice of the peace in and for Prince George's county, and the commissioners of Laurel may provide for the expenses so incurred.

Arrest for breaking the peace. SEC. 49. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall perform such services as said commissioners shall direct; he shall arrest and carry before some justice of the peace for Prince George's county, resident in said town, or as provided in the preceding section, to be dealt with as hereinbefore provided, any person or persons found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made for securing the safety of the property or the lives of inhabitants of said town.

Impose licenses. SEC. 50. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to impose a license upon all circuses, menageries, theatrical exhibitions and other shows and exhibitions for gain exhibiting within the limits of said town not exceeding ten dollars for each.

Prevent fast driving. SEC. 51. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to pass ordinances to prevent fast or immoderate riding or driving through the streets of said town, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated so as to render it unsafe to permit him to ride or drive through the streets, may provide for the removal of the horse and vehicle beyond the limits of said town, or for the deposit thereof in some place of security until the offender shall be sober, and may confine said offender, as provided in section forty-five of this act; to prevent and remove any obstructions in the streets, lanes or alleys; to prevent the exhibition of any indecent or immoral shows in said town, and to pass all other ordinances or by-laws necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them.

Style of ordinances. SEC. 52. And be it enacted, That the style of all ordinances shall be, "Be it enacted and ordained by the Commissioners of Laurel;" that all suits at law