

shall have the cash surrender value endorsed thereon.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the said company may purchase for its own benefit any policy of insurance or other obligation of the said company growing out of its business, and also any claims arising out of dividends or profits; but no officer, director or agent of the company shall be directly or indirectly interested in such purchase. May purchase policies

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any married woman, by herself and in her name, or in the name of a third person, with his assent as her trustee, to cause to be insured in said company, for her sole use, the life of her husband, for any definite period or for the term of his natural life, and in case of her surviving her husband the sum or net amount of the insurance becoming due and payable by the terms of the insurance shall be payable to her and for her sole use, free from the claims of the representative of her said husband, or of any of his creditors. In case of the decease of the wife before her husband, the amount of insurance due at his death shall pass to the children of said wife so insuring, for their use. Married women may insure.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage, but may be altered, amended or repealed by the Legislature of Maryland at its pleasure. In force.

Approved April —, 1878.