

Repealed and re-enacted with amendments. the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, chapter two hundred and eighty-seven, entitled "An act to add an additional section to the Public Local Laws of Dorchester county," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows :

SEC. 154. The County Commissioners of Dorchester county shall have general supervision of the public roads of said county, and shall have power to sub-divide each election district of said county into road districts, and to appoint a supervisor for each of said road districts; and upon any supervisor refusing or neglecting to discharge the duties of road supervisor after being so appointed, he shall, upon proof and conviction thereof in the Circuit Court, be fined a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, and costs of conviction; provided no person shall be compelled to serve more than one year in three years.

May divide into road districts.

SEC. 155. All able-bodied male residents of said county who have resided thirty days in said road district, above the age of twenty and under fifty years, who do not reside within the limits of an incorporated town, shall be compelled to labor in repairing the roads at least two days in every year; and every such man owning horse or ox teams shall be compelled to labor in repairing the roads at least three days in every year; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any one from employing a substitute to labor on the roads, or pay to the road supervisor seventy-five cents per day for each day he is entitled to labor.

Who are compelled to labor.

SEC. 156. Whenever the said supervisors, or their deputies, shall deem it necessary to call upon said individuals for their labor upon the roads, they shall summon them, giving at least ten days' notice of the time and place appointed for their labor, except in such extraordinary cases as may require shorter notice, and if any person being summoned shall neglect or refuse to attend with proper implements to do the work, or provide a substitute, or to pay on demand by the supervisor, his agent or deputy, the sum of seventy-five cents per day for each and every day he is summoned and entitled to work, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and the super-

Summon and give ten days' notice.