

for each day of actual manual labor of the supervisor on the roads or in repairing said bridges he shall receive for compensation one dollar per day, not to exceed ten days in a year.

SEC. 163. All bridges properly built or repaired, broken down by timber carts or wagons heavily loaded, and carts, shall immediately be substantially repaired by the owner of said carts or wagons, and if said owner or owners neglect or refuse to repair such bridges they shall be responsible to any individual for all damages caused him by reason of the broken bridge, and for all costs the road supervisor expends in repairing them, to be collected before a justice of the peace as small debts are usually collected.

Owners of
wagons to repair.

SEC. 164. Whenever the supervisor shall find it necessary to open a water course through private property, to secure the proper drainage of any public road, he shall so inform the County Commissioners, and if the owner or owners of said private property consent to the opening of such water course, or they can agree upon the value and price to be paid for the same, then such consent or agreement shall be entered on the commissioners' books, and such water course opened; but if they cannot agree, and the commissioners decide that the opening of such water course is necessary to drain said road, they shall authorize the supervisor to summon a jury of twelve men to value and condemn the said water course, deducting from their estimate the value, if any, that such water course will be to the owner or owners of said land through which it shall pass, and as soon as the money for such drainage is tendered to the owner or owners, the supervisor shall open such water course.

Open water
course.

Summon jury

SEC. 165. Any supervisor failing in the performance of any of these duties prescribed in the preceding sections of this article, or who shall in any other way or manner fail or neglect to perform the duties of supervisor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and any person damaged or delayed on account of the bad or dangerous condition of the roads, may report the same, under oath, to a justice of the peace of the election district in which

Penalty for neglecting
duties.